

Leech Lake Tribal College Host the 2010 National Summer Transportation Institute Program

July 5th-30th
A four week day program 9:00 am -4:00pm

Full scholarships are available to twenty students and will cover the entire cost for the four- week summer program.

Students will learn the basics of transportation and its effect on our way of living. They will also learn the role transportation plays in business and commerce. They will be exposed to a variety of educational opportunities and what educational requirements are expected for various career opportunities.

LLTC is committed to providing quality education grounded in Anishinaabe values.
